Blackmail Charges Made In Fatty Arbuckle Case

Counsel For Famous Film Comedian, On Trial For Murder, Charges Al. Semnacher With Conceiving Blackmailing Plot

San Francisco, California, September 27.—Charges of a plot to blackmail Roscoe, "Fatty" Arbuckle, were made late Monday in his trial for the alleged murder of Virginia Rappe, the young movie actress.

Frank Dominguez, chief counsel for Arbuckle, dramatically announced that he and his associate counsel had a theory that Al Semnacher took the clothing of Virginia Rappe to Los Angeles for the purpose of blackmailing Arbuckle.

Creates Court Uproar

"If I can show that Semnacher plotted and conceived the idea of taking Miss Rappe's clothing to Los Angeles for the purpose of extorting money from Arbuckle I feel it my duty to do so," Dominguez announced to the court.

The announcement came while Semnacher was on the stand and threw the court into turmoil. Arbuckle sat straight in his seat and then his big frame crumbled.

The questioning which preceded this announcement brought the name of Earl Lynn, said to be an actor, into the testimony. Dominguez asked Semnacher if he saw a letter Mrs. Bambino Delmonte was alleged to have written charging Lynn had placed her in a compromising position.

State Objects

At this point the State interposed objection which drew from Dominguez his charge of blackmail. The connection between Mrs. Delmonte's alleged letter and Dominguez' declaration was not made clear.

Semnacher denied he had discussed the disposition of Miss Rappe's clothing with Mrs. Delmonte after he found her in Arbuckle's room. He repeated previous testimony that he took her underwear to Los Angeles with his "first to joke her with being intoxicated and second to wipe out the car with it."

Playful Pet!

Snakes are just as nice and playful as pet dogs or kittens, when you learn to like them, says this boy. He's the three-year-old son of Richard G. Paine of the National Museum in Washington, D. C.

Brotherhoods Meet To Canvass Strike Ballot

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 27.—The shut down in the rail labor controversy was under way here Monday with the assembling of the officers and general chairmen of the Brotherhoods of Railway Trainmen to open the strike ballot on the question of accepting wage cuts or leaving the service.

The other big brotherhoods will start strike parleys on October 3rd. They too have put the strike question up to their members for a decisive vote and the most painstaking arrangement to secure a hundred percent membership ballot in the history of organization.

While the Brotherhoods are making their decision, the Federated Shopmen's Union, representing 500,000 railroad shop men, will be waiting for the decision of the Railroad Board on working rules.

The meeting opened here Monday by the railroad unions, hearings on appeals to the Rail Board and meetings with rail executives.

There have been threats of strikes and appeals from decision of the Rail Labor Board.

FINISHING TOUCHES ARE PUT ON FAIR GROUNDS ALL READY FOR OPENER

All Indications Point To Biggest Year In Fair's History—Stock Exhibits in Place—Other Features Take Shape

The Clearfield Driving Park, or local fair grounds, was a veritable beehive of industry yesterday, as an army of workmen and women hustled about from pillar to post getting things in readiness for the opening of the big fair today.

Work Crew Busy

The Park Association have a large crew of men at work completing the work of laying the four inch water line throughout the park while another gang was usually hard at work putting the finishing touches on the driveways in and about the grounds.

The merchants with display spaces in the big Exposition Building were also hard at work fixing up their booths, while concession holders were busily engaged getting their stands in shape for business bright and early, when the gates open to the expecter crowds of spectators this morning.

Stock Begins to Arrive

There was a steady procession of stock of various kinds into the fair grounds all day long and by evening the long line of stock sheds were well filled. This exhibit is about the finest ever shown on the local grounds and is well worth visiting.

The poultry department is also crowded to capacity, while the agricultural exhibit is complete and thoroughly keeping with the advance and showing in the other departments.

Col. Ferraris' shows with their merry-go-round, Eli Ferris wheel and who are on hand again this year and opened up ready for business last evening.

All Stables Filled

Fifteen more fast horses arrived at the park during the day and every stable is now filled. The track was not in the best of shape Monday morning but the sun during the day worked wonders with it and the racing card will be carried out today and the track will undoubtedly be in the shape by Wednesday.

Baby Contest

The Fair Association will again

hold a Baby Contest as they have done in previous years and all mothers are requested to enter their little ones.

The babies up to 1 year will be registered in the new rest room for women between the hours of 9 and 10 on the following mornings: Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. The contest closes Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The Doctors will pass their judgment Friday morning on the babies registered and the result and prizes will be given Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. from the platform of the Exposition Hall.

Plenty of Music
The famous Wallace Orchestra arrived in town last evening and will be ready to again delight the fair crowds.

The American Legion Band will also be present to enliven the occasion with their fine music.

Wednesday will be school children's day. All the school children in Clearfield county being entitled to free admission to the park Wednesday afternoon. The school children will line up in front of the Clearfield High School and headed by the Clearfield American Legion Band will march to the park in a body. The Curwensville American Legion Band will also be in the parade and will add their musical efforts to the general entertainments for the afternoon.

Several really worth free attractions will be given in front of the grand stand during each afternoon of the fair.

Everything is ready for a real old fashioned county fair and you will miss something really worth while if you fail to attend the different sessions.

There will be an evening program and the finest of fireworks.

FOREIGN TRADE DISCUSSED WITH THE PRESIDENT

Officials Of The United States Chamber Of Commerce Present

JUST RETURNED FROM ABROAD

Washington, D. C. Sept. 27.—(By United News)—European business conditions relating to American foreign trade were discussed with President Harding today by a committee of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce recently returned from an investigating trip abroad. Sen. Kellogg brought the delegation to the White House. The committee included Jos. H. Deffries, of Chicago, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Silas H. Strawn, of Chicago, and John H. Fatty, of Boston.

STRIKING JURORS ORDERED BACK TO COURT BY JUDGE

Walked Out Because Other Nine Failed To Concur On Charge

Media, Pa., Sept. 27.—(By United News)—Eleven striking members of the Delaware county grand jury who "struck" on Saturday were ordered back to work Monday morning by Judge Wm. D. Broomall. He promised punishment for contempt if they kept up the strike.

Enraged Over "Bloc"

Under the leadership of Mrs. Edwin A. Yarnall, of Sathmor the 11 jurors went out on strike, because they declared the other 9 formed a "bloc" and voted against finding a "true bill" in the case of three alleged proprietors of gambling houses, arrested in Mayor Ramsey's clean up campaign in Chester last month. A vote of 12 members is required to find a true bill.

WOODLAND ROAD OPENED

County Superintendent of State Roads, Westcott informs The Progress that the Woodland road from the end of the borough line in Daisy street will be opened for traffic tomorrow morning, thus doing away with the detour up Thirtieth street and around out to the State road near Weaver street.

Mrs. Clara Stewart has returned home from a visit to her sister-in-law Mrs. Alice Nale of DuBois.

JOINT ACTION BY ALL NATIONS IN LEAGUE BLOCKADE

Blockade Commission Recommends Con- certed Action By All

BLOCKADE BY NOTIFICATION

Geneva, Sept. 27.—(By United News)—Joint action by all members of the League of Nations in severing relations and enforcing a blockade against any nation refusing to abide by the League's decisions is provided for in the blockade commissions report to the League Assembly which was delivered Monday.

The commission recognizes however, that it would be practically impossible to enforce a unanimous blockade merely by "ordering it done". Consequently the Assembly has merely authorized the Council to "notify the League members when a blockade is required and to invite the members to participate in it."

SUIT OVER SUIT IS BROUGHT IN THE LOCAL COURTS

Ralph A. Johnson, of Curwensville, by his attorneys Miller & Harstwick entered suit in Prothonotary's Register's office yesterday against Jos. A. Shoff in an effort to recover $45 which Johnson alleges is due him on a business deal. The statement filed recites that Shoff was selling suits to measure and secured an order for a suit from Johnson. When the suit arrived Johnson paid for it but when he took it home it did not fit and Shoff agreed to have it altered to fit. This he failed or was unable to do and when he refused to return the $45 after Johnson returned the suit, the aid of the law was invoked in an effort to recover the amount.

PROHIBITIONISTS QUESTION CHIEF OF POLICE DEPT.

Chicago Police Head's Statement Arouses Ire Of Drys

SAID 2,500 POLICE AID BOOTLEGGERS

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(By United News)—The charge by Police Chief Charles Fitzmaurice that 2500 members of the Chicago police force were interested in bootlegging, Monday, resulted in the quizzing of several high police officials by Federal dry agents here today.

Prohibition officials regard the coming investigation of the alleged activities of the police in aiding booze runners as likely to lead to the most sensational expose of the operation of Prohibition enforcement that has yet occurred.

Chief Fitzmaurice and Chief of Detectives Hughes went before the Cook county grand jury to give information regarding the alleged charge made by the former.

BUCKET BRIGADE PUTS OUT FIRE

Some little excitement was occasioned about the Hotel Jordan Saturday night last when the roof of the kitchen was discovered to be on fire. The blaze was discovered by fire Chauncey Miller and he went right after it with out giving alarm enough to excite unduly the guests at the hotel.

A hole some six feet square was burned in the roof before the flames were subdued. A bunch of four or five husky waitresses formed a bucket line and poured $80 worth of oyster and chicken soup on the fire before it was all out.

Co-operation Urged To Solve Nation's Unemployment Tangle

President Opens Up Conference With This Statement

Washington, Sept. 27.—("All America") must co-operate in solving the unemployment problem said President Harding addressing the opening session of the unemployment conference Monday.

"A crystallization of much valuable public thought on this matter would have lasting values in the education of our people," said Sen. Hoover.

Conference Open

So the conference is to be open to the public so that "All America" may be in on its deliberations and know what it is to do. Public hearings will be held on all subjects under discussion, the first will be that on employment figures Tuesday morning.

Legion To Take Steps

New York, Sept. 27.—Following a series of conferences on the unemployment situation and a brief survey of conditions in the greater cities of the United States, the American Legion has decided to take immediate steps to bring emergency relief to the half million ex-servicemen of the world war now believed to be out of work in this country.

National Commander John C. Emory announced Monday that he has called a conference at Indianapolis on Sept. 30th to which a A. A. Savage, William McCrory of Chicago, Roy Hoffman of Oklahoma City, C. W. Wickersham, of New York and national officers and department heads will be present to make recommendations for action.

Was it a surprise? Say it was in Comic Or Tonight's Tea Table, P. 8, C. 176.

BRUSH FIRE BEYOND CONTROL MENACES MOVIE STUDIOS

Actors, Directors And Stage Hands Working Desperately To Build Strong Firebreak

Los Angeles, Sept. 27.—(By United Press)—The extensive plant and studios of the Universal Film Manufacturing Company at Universal City were being menaced Monday by a fierce brush fire sweeping down through Calhoun Pass.

All work at the studios was suspended. Actors, directors, company officials, carpenters and stage employees were working with axes and picks in an attempt to construct a fire break.

The Universal properties are valued at several million dollars.

STATE TROOPER ARRESTS AUTOISTS

Joe Boiowich, of Grampian, was arrested by State Trooper Kohn on Saturday last for operating a motor vehicle on the public highway while alleged to be at least "half seas over." Joe gave bail for court and will endeavor to convince the Court at a later date that the "gasoline" in the outfit was all in the machine.

Workmen Complete Swimming Pool

Contractor H. L. Connolly started a crew of men to work this morning on the concreting of the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. The pool will be regulation 20x60 feet in size and will be a part of the proposed new addition to the local Y. M. C. A.

Lawbreakers Who Plead Guilty Are Sentenced Monday By Judge Bell

Judge Bell handed out sentences yesterday morning to those malefactors who entered pleas of guilty or were convicted of law violations at last week's session of criminal court.

Local Trio Paroled

Messrs. Wagner, Buchanan and Clark, local young men, entered pleas of guilty to a minor crime against morality. The former, who was on court parole for a previous infraction of the law, was paroled on payment of costs until February term at which time final sentence will be made. The other two were fined $25 and costs and 9 months in jail, but as they had already served some time were given a parole from further jail sentence on payment of fine and costs.

Grampian Man Sentenced

Frank Tuloskey, of Grampian, who got mixed up in a liquor law violation, was given a $25 fine and costs and three months in jail with privilege of parole in fifteen days. He was allowed until December to did up fine and costs.

Michel Paroled

Tony Michel, the Lee Hollow moonshiner, was sentenced to pay the costs and three months in jail, but as he had already served more than three months he was allowed to go home and given until December to pay the costs.

$5 And Costs For Assault

Mike Duda, an alien, of Boardman who entered a plea of guilty to an assault and battery charge and to possessing a fire arm, was sentenced to pay $5.00 fine and costs by December term of court.

Suspended Sentence For Fake Inspector

W. S. Thomas, of Coalport, who represented himself as a "Satet fire inspector and finding a lot of defective fuses in that region repaired same and assessed the property owners quite handsomely for the work, drew down a suspended sentence and was given until February court to pay the costs in other case.

Shiner Got Off Lucky

Joe Hahn, the Grampian moonshiner, also got off lucky. When called for sentence Attorney Walter Welch made a plea for leniency on the ground that Joe was made the "goat" in the matter of the Grampian Distilling Co., Joe was as woolly as a sheep and Judge Bell seemed to regard him as being more or less related to the goat family. He said he believed Joe had been selected because his partners in the Official Returns From Late Primaries Are "Balled Up"

Commissioners To Visit 44 Districts For Vote Records

According to present mode, manner and rate of procedure Clearfield county voters will get the official returns from the primary election on Tuesday September 20th, about the time they are called upon to again cast their ballots at the November election. In fact it is taking about as long to get the returns or results of the last primary as it used to take to get election returns in the days before the telephone and telegraph.

Bonds Fail to Make Official Returns

This condition is due largely to the fact that Clearfield county election boards are sorely in need of education and knowledge of the election laws of the State. Without any idea or thought of being personal, we will qualify the above statement by saying that of the 108 election boards of the county just 64 of them made legal or proper returns of the primary election. That means the remaining 44 were ignorant or neglectful of their duty and failed to comply with the law. This too after the County Commissioners had gone to the trouble and expense of preparing a circular letter of instruction on their own hook, and in addition to the regular instructions required under the election laws. These letters of instructions were mailed or delivered to the Judges of Election in each district with the instruction to impart the knowledge contained there.

Law Explicitly

The law requires the official computing board, when they get ready to make their tabulation, to compare the number of ballots provided for each district with the number cast and also count the stubs of the ballots used. Therefore, it is necessary and required that the Judge of Election return the ballot stubs with the return and tally sheets in order that this comparison may be made and it determined that every ballot voted or destroyed is accounted for. Instruction as to this requirement was specifically set out yet everyone of the 44 districts in question failed to return these stubs, and thus as a result of the vote cast in any one of these districts can be made until the ballot boxes are opened and these stubs secured.

Accordingly, and to the end that we may know sometime this fall just how the primary election went the County Commissioners, by advice of counsel and with the sanction of the Court, began today the task of retrieving these ballot stubs from the different ballot boxes. It will be necessary for the Commissioners or their authorized agent to visit the Judge of Election in each affected district and have the Judge accompany them to the ballot box and secure the necessary stubs. After which the official count will proceed and be completed.

Of the 44 districts to be visited in this manner three are located in Clearfield borough.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The overall and shirt factory after a week's idleness in order to give the employees a vacation, resumed operations again on Monday. Manager Jipps spent last week at Mechanicsburg in the cutting and pressing department. Plans are underway to put in another row of machines in this plant within the next few months.

Chief Clark slaughtered a genuine old fashioned porcine on Meadow street Monday morning. It was on exhibition at the bank corner and proved a great curiosity to the school children who had never seen one of these blinda before.

Saturday evening Chief Clark went up to the brick plant and arrested Teddy Zalski on charge of conducting a speakeasy and resisting an officer. Officers went up for the purpose of arresting a bootlegger or two who were doing some business among the foreign element who live in shanties and Zalski interferred. He was given a hearing before Dale on Monday forenoon and was sent to jail to await trial, being unable to secure a bail bond.

An auto accident occurred near the overhead B. R. & P. bridge at west end of State street Saturday night at a late hour in which one machine was badly damaged. The owner of the damaged machine was a citizen of Clearfield.

The funeral of the late John S. Thompson was held from the home of his son, Philip Thompson, west State street on Monday afternoon. A large number of friends attended the services at the house. The beautiful floral emblems was a proof of the high esteem in which he was held in the community. Interment of body was made in family plot, in a vault in Oak Hill cemetery.

Miss Harry Bilger returned home Saturday evening from a week's visit among kin folks in Helvetia.

Mr. Samuel Thompson, of Barnesboro arrived in Curwensville and spent Saturday and Sunday with his father, Mr. W. H. Thompson.

Hon Joseph Philips, of Clearfield, addressed a fair sized audience in the M. E. church Monday evening.

"The Passing Show", an entertainment which was billed to take place in the opera house Monday night was annulled for some reason or other. It would have required 125 people to fill the roles of the four numbers in which the play was divided.

Street Commissioner Dale is getting the dirt roads and alleys of the borough in travel shape once more, after the tearing up caused by the heavy storms of last week. It will require some weeks and no small amount of labor ere the driveways are in as good shape as before the storms.

The Curwensville foot ball contingent that went to DuBois last Saturday for a game, came back home, suffering a defeat by a score of 20 to 0. The Curwensville boys lay claim to the fact that they did not get a square deal, hence their defeat.

Rev. E. B. Caldwell's talk in the Methodist church Sunday forenoon proved of vast interest to the unusually large congregation. His wide knowledge of the Oriental countries, including China, Japan, Korea and Africa, was a vast experience and he told about it in a manner that held his audience in spell-bound interest for over an hour. One experience was walking 155 miles through the heart of old cannibal tribe country of the Congo and he learned of the conditions which exist in the above countries as few men know them.

ENDORSED BY PHYSICIANS, RECOMMENDED BY DRUGGISTS

Convincing Proof That There Is Real Merit And Medicinal Value In Nerv-Worth Is Found In The Endorsements Of Physicians And Druggists Who Have Tested Nerv-Worth From A Professional Standpoint, And Found That It Does The Work.

"I consider Nerv-Worth a wonderful remedy. It is giving the best of satisfaction, and our sales have exceeded our expectations," said Geo. W. Clawson, druggist at Troy, Ohio. "In 45 years of business we have never sold anything that equaled Nerv-Worth as to results, and the amount sold," says the Troupe Drug Co., Springfield, Ohio.

Dr. N. B. Ferguson said: "Nerv-Worth is truly a great remedy. I have tested it professionally in my practice and actually and practically in my family. It gives me pleasure to recommend it to the general public. It, in my opinion, will prove a great boon to the sufferers from the troubles for which it is intended to be an ameliorative remedy."

Dr. G. W. Adams said: "I can recommend Nerv-Worth for nervousness and indigestion, or any ills which attend neurasthenia." If you are run down, half sick, nervous and irritable, or if you are sleepless, have a sour breath, suffer from gas on the stomach, belching, stomach pains, nervous moodiness or depression, take Nerv-Worth and let it help restore your health. It is sold on a money-back guarantee. Take a bottle according to directions and if you are not satisfied, your money will be cheerfully refunded. Sold no a money-back guarantee by Stewart's Drug Store and all leading druggists everywhere. Nerv-Worth is now per bottle, $1.00.

The man who sells Atlantic Motor Oil

The man who sells you Atlantic Motor Oil does so with the conviction that Atlantic is the finest motor lubricant the oil industry knows how to produce.

"Medium," for example. He knows how important it is that "medium" oil should carry the assurance of remaining "medium" under operating conditions. He recommends because he knows that in it you'll get an oil that holds its body—that stands up under the attacks of heat, friction and pressure a motor oil encounters.

Atlantic Medium contains only the highest heat-resisting hydrocarbons the crude petroleum affords. All impurities and other elements having a tendency to corrode metal, pit valves and gum bearings have been removed.

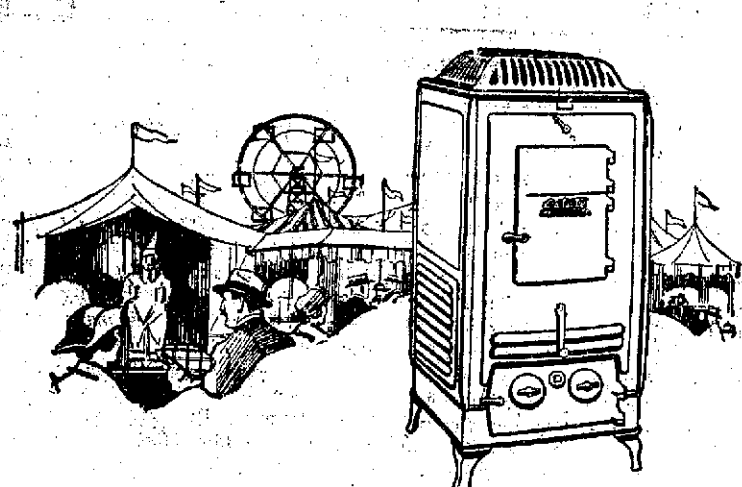

Atlantic Medium is based upon more than half a century of oil refining experience—but especially upon a twenty-five-year study of the wide range of lubrication requirements the development of the automobile engine has brought with it.

The life of your motor and the pleasure you get from uninterrupted smooth-running and full-powered motor efficiency make it worth your while to look for the Atlantic sign and getting oil that is oil.

"By Skinny"

We noted in one of last Sunday's Philadelphia dailies an article which described in glowing terms the "sweet simplicity" of President Harding. Judging alone by the efforts of the President's publicity agent, the number and character of the picture of "our leader" appearing in the dailies every day and the Sunday picture supplements, we are beginning to be of the opinion that Warren G. is without a doubt, about the "simplest" President we have had inflicted upon us for many a moon.

France's loss in population as a result of the war, was 2,000,000 persons, Dr. Lucien March, of Paris told delegates to the second International Conference in Eugenics held in New York last week.

"The France of 1914," Dr. March declared, "has lost 1,400,000 of her inhabitants in the prime of life, most of them fit for producing children."

"Besides this there are 800,000 total invalids who will never be able to give birth to strong, healthy children, either because they are no longer capable of marrying, or because they are affected with tuberculosis or other constitutional maladies."

In calculating the actual population loss, Dr. March, said he had taken into account the deficit in birth below what they would normally have been. He said this amounted to 400,000 while an equal shortage could be accounted for by the greatly increased death rate in the civil population.

The aircraft division of the United States army, after a series of successful night bombing tests, now give it, as the combined opinion of their experts, that the modern battleship is doomed. The army air chiefs say that no battleship is able to combat a night attack from the air and as bombs twice the size and destructive power of any used during the world war have been perfected by our munitions experts the airmen say that with two $1500 bombing planes it would be but the work of a couple of hours in the dark to blow out of the water the biggest dreadnaught afloat.

Clearfield's American Legion Band attracted such favorable attention at the recent reunion of the officers of the 28th Division at Boalsburg and the State Convention of the American Legion at Pittsburgh that it is said an offer has been made to the band to have them enlist in the Pennsylvania National Guard as a unit.

Clearfield county is closed this year to the hunting of wild turkey, Hungarian and Virginia quail and Ringneck pheasants. Through an error or oversight several of the newspapers of the county have carried news stories to the effect that all bird hunting in this county is off for this year. Hunters should not be misled by such misinformation as the native pheasant or ruffed grouse will be legal game in Clearfield Co., this season, which opens November 1st and continues during that month. The bag limit is three per day and fifteen for the season.

The gathering of pelts of noxious animals has developed into an extensive business in the State in the last six years. Secretary Gordon of the Game Commission gives figures which show that since 1916, including the first seven months this year, $480,582 has been paid out in bounties by the State on 2599 wildcats, 24,185 gray foxes, 21,059 red foxes, 26,169 mink and 244,880 weasles. These are exclusive of the

24 1/2 Million Dollars
Invested by Employees of Swift & Company

More than 21,000 employees of Swift & Company own or are paying for shares in the business. These men and women have attested their faith in the integrity and good will of the company by investing their savings in the business.

Their holdings represent a total of nearly 250,000 shares, the par value ($100 a share) of which is more than $24,500,000.

These 21,000 represent more than one-third of our average number of employees!

One man out of every three, in plant, office, and branch house, from the handworker on the floor to the brain worker at the desk; working with us as well as for us, devoting himself to his own business while devoting himself to ours; promoting his own interests in every motion or moment saved, in every product improved or maintained at perfection, in every service rendered through prompt, thorough, effective distribution of products.

This interested, eager group of fellow partners working with us for the good of Swift & Company and the public which we serve, constitutes one-half of the ownership of Swift & Company in point of numbers, and nearly one-sixth in point of shares outstanding.

It represents practical and successful progress toward the end at which enlightened modern industry is aiming for the solution of industrial problems—toward cooperation, mutuality, brotherhood in business, for the good of all.

KENZIE IVAN SLOPPY

The body of First Class Private Kenzie Ivan Sloppey, was returned to the home of his parents, Kenzie A. and Jennie Lanich Sloppey at New Millport, Pa., on Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1921. He was born in Clearfield, April 28, 1896, while yet a small boy the family moved to New Millport, Pa., where Ivan was reared, reaching the highest plane in the circle among the ones with whom he associated. He has been a member of the M. E. church since childhood. Ivan Sloppey on entering the service was placed in training at Camp Lee, Va. on April 2, 1918, thence to France, landing May 30, 1918, after a very exciting voyage, after a brief training with British forces on the Flanders Sector, he was placed in front line fighting until Oct. 9, when the company of which he was a member, Co. M. 31st Infantry, with others made an advance, breaking through the German lines at Cunel, Meuse. The gap in the lines were then closed

Company M. having been surrounded in the darkness were subjected to a raking machine gun fire. On the return of this Company to their Regiment only thirty men answered Roll Call, Ivan was reported as missing in action. He was afterward reported as having died from wounds, about Oct. 27. Extracts from letters of Capt. Hickman:

"Ivan proved himself a fine soldier. I counted him among my most reliable men. I am proud of him. They made themselves a record for bravery, having accomplished all that was set for them to do."

Extract from letter of Chaplain Byrr Lee, Jr.

"Not only is his loss deeply felt by his family and relatives but by all the soldiers who knew him. He laid down his life for the principles which made life worth while. Pennsylvania lost a citizen of high standing and the U. S. Army a sterling soldier."

Extract from letter of Lieut. Pierce Hendrick.

"Ivan certainly carried himself in the face of the enemy, with credit to himself, the Army and his family. He was first temporarily buried at Cunel, then in the Argonne-American cemetery at Romagne."

The services from his home town took place in the Lutheran church at New Millport, Pa., Friday, p. m. Rev. C. A. Biddle, officiating, assisted by Rev. F. A. Lawson and Rev. Edwin Dingman. Undertaker Wm. Thompson in charge. The American Legion of Clearfield having charge of the services, which was conducted with credit to those in charge.

WHAT TO DO FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

A convention of the best minds in the nation has been called to consider ways and means of producing jobs for the idle of the nation. Granting that the problem of unemployment is a serious one in many communities, we submit that it will defy solution through or by any convention. At best the so-called unemployment congress can only make suggestions and few of these suggestions will be found practical, except possibly to clear the path of commerce by slashing of taxes and other measures which business now claims is hindering development. The New York World avers that it is a problem for the localities chiefly affected and for all the people there, rather than for our government, and this is a sane view, but The World adds "Most of these municipalities are already overwhelmed with debt on account of public works and unemployment thereon, and their people are taxed half to death as it is."

"But," The World argues, "the present occasion is extraordinary and calls for extraordinary measures to expand municipal construction wherever such construction anticipates legitimate future needs."

Alright, some day soon we are going to widen our business streets and equip them with up-to-date cluster lights. This is a legitimate future need.

Also, in one more year we are going to have overcrowded school rooms. Why not start to plan this work now?

And, what is to hinder going ahead with the county road building with all speed?

Our prediction is that in the near future we are going to wake up to find business on the hum, and these improvements will be harder to make than at the present time.

THE LEADER (Thrift Magazine)

Some boys were playing "follow the leader." The leader's pranks were innocent enough and all went well until he jumped into a muddy ditch. Then one of the boys refused to follow suit. He was taunted by his companions and jeered as a coward. The boy stood his ground and told them, with all the determination of one with the strength of his youthful convictions, that he did not see why he should jump into the mud just because the rest were foolish enough to.

This boy was no coward, though his playmates thought he was very much of one and were quite disgusted with him. Maybe some of those boys continued to be blind to that sort of courage all their lives, but it is to be hoped that at least a few opened their eyes before many years had passed. That boy would have gone through more than mud, more than fire or water, if there had been some real issue at stake. He had that sort of courage.

Most of us are following a leader. The scheme of life calls for it. There must be more in the rank and file than in general uniforms, or there would be no army. Unlike the army, in civil life, we have the privilege of choosing our leader. It is this choice that makes or breaks us. If we have a leader who takes us through mud, it is time for us to show that we have courage of the same timber as the little boy, and depose our false leader for one who will guide us along the only path that leads to happiness.

On a relatively small or large scale, we are all leaders. Someone looks to us. If human beings would learn by others' mistakes, the responsibility on us would not be so great. But they do not learn, they imitate and suffer likewise. When we err, we cannot ease our conscience and say, "Now, they know what not to do," because they do not. They must go through mud, but if we travel along the sunlit highways, it is more probable they will follow us.

Olive Tree's Enemies.
Besides the birds, there are numerous insects which attack the fruit, the wood and the leaves of the olive tree. The most dreaded of these is a small fly called Dacus oleae, which is about half the size of a common house fly. The female has a stinging like a wasp, with which she punctures the fruit where she deposits her eggs. It is calculated that a single fly will thus destroy 300 or 400 olives.

Anachronism in "Ben-Hur."
One of the star names given to Arabian horses in "Ben-Hur" is Mira. This name was introduced into astronomy about sixteen centuries after the period of the story.

Knew One, at Least.

It was an East end school. The teacher had been telling the children about Noah's ark and the Ark of the Covenant. And then she asked the class if anyone knew of any other ark in the Bible. The knowing boy, who had been spending his evenings rehearsing Christmas carols: "Yes, mum, 'Ark the 'eald angels sing!'"—London Chronicle.

WHAT ANDREWS SAID

Mr. C. J. Andrews is a successful manufacturer of hardware. He began forty years ago without any money and has built up a fine business.

A young man, who was determined to win success went to Mr. Andrews some time ago for advice. He wanted to learn the secret of his success.

"The best advice I can give you, my boy," said Mr. Andrews, "is to make friends as soon as you can with a good banker and then tell him all about your plans and problems. Your banker can be worth a great deal to you but he must be treated fairly—he must not try to work in the dark."

"And when the time comes that you need a lawyer, you should follow the same plan with him. The man who counsels often with a good banker and a good lawyer will not make many serious mistakes."

Does that strike you as safe advice?

LAWBREAKERS ARE SENTENCED

venture wanted some one to do the heavy lifting and he proposed to give him another chance. He then sentenced Joe to pay $1 fine and the costs and three months in jail. Joe and his attorneys made the point that the picturesque moonshiner had already served 103 days in jail and wanted to know if he couldn't get credit on his costs for the extra jail duty. Judge Bell said "No, that the extra twenty-three days would be a penalty on Joe for not entering a plea of guilty when first arrested," but he did extend the time for paying the costs to May sessions, 1922, after giving Joe some good advice as to his future conduct.

Child Beater Soaked

Joe Kennedy, a weasel faced individual from Westover, who was prosecuted by Juvenile Probation Officer Leavy for brutally abusing his little 10 year old step daughter, and who entered a plea of guilty to throwing the child down stairs, and breaking both her arms, was sentenced to pay $100 fine and costs and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for not less than 18 months nor more than two years.

Prison For Highwayman

Harry Devine, the DuBois man, convicted of highway robbery and recommended to the mercy of the court by the jury's verdict, was called for sentence. Attorney J. A. Glenon made a plea for the man, stating that he was not a criminal six months ago; that he had served one year and a half in France and had a wife and child in DuBois. Judge Bell sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and the cost of the prosecution and to serve not less than three nor more than seven years in the penitentiary.

Suspended Sentence For Theft

Lerman Duttry, of Sabula, who entered a plea of guilty to stealing a number of automobile tires off machines parked along the streets of DuBois, was fined $100 and costs with a suspension of further sentence.

Helps in Game of Life.

Life's game must be a winning game to keep the interest fresh. Every day should mark some advance toward the cherished goal. The fact that we believe helps us to smile, and the smile helps to keep us young. The fearful never make a success of life's game. Timidity begets fear in themselves and those who work with them. It's the nose around the neck of every advance. Fear and undue reserve sounds the death knell of many a worthy endeavor.

Reprisal!

There's a little boy in our town who was given a puppy for Christmas, and the gift being at the puppish age, when everything looks good to chew, he bites harder sometimes than he should. One morning, several days after Christmas, the little dog ran howling from the room. When the little boy's mother inquired what was the matter he replied: "He bit my finger and he can't learn to stop biting, so I bit his ear."—Topeka Journal.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

Win Another Game From Indians And Are Now Favorites In Pennant Race

BABE RUTH GETS 2 MORE HOMERS

New York, Sept. 27.—(By United News)—New York became the favorites in the American league pennant race yesterday by defeating the Indians 8 to 7 making it three out of four games in their series. It was an exciting game in which pitchers were pounded hard and in which the Indians fought until the last out in the last inning. Twice they were within a run of tying the score and each time the Highlanders cut them off.

Babe Ruth was the individual star of the day. He scored 3 runs and knocked in two more homers and scored his fifty-eighth home run of the season.
